

2007 OMD UU Young Adult Spring Conference:

Spring CONsciousness

con·scious·ness [kon-shuh s-nis]

–noun

1. the state of being conscious; awareness of one's own existence, sensations, thoughts, surroundings, etc.
2. the thoughts and feelings, collectively, of an individual or of an aggregate of people:
the moral consciousness of a nation
- 3. A great way to spend time with fellow UU young adults!

When: April 27th-29th, 2007

Where: First Unitarian Universalist Church of Cleveland
21600 Shaker Blvd.
Shaker Heights, OH 44122-2662

Cost: $10-$20, sliding scale

To Register: Email Liz Heltman (jademren@usa.net) to register

Things to Bring: Anything you'll need to spend two nights sleeping in the church. Also, clothes you can move in, musical instruments, games and an open mind.

Come and join your fellow UU young adults for Spring CONsciousness – a weekend of fun, fellowship, and reflection. Tell your friends! Come to see old friends, meet some new ones, and to become more in touch with yourself, your spirituality and the world around you.

There will be a climate change presentation by Alvidas Jasin , who is a Climate Project trainee. The Climate Project is a movement to educate and challenge citizens and governments into action against the growing crisis of global warming. This is the project spearheaded by Al Gore and the movie An Inconvenient Truth.

